

LOCAL EVENT in GILLING EAST

HEDGE LAYING

AWARD-WINNING HEDGE LAYER WITH
EDWARD CALDECOTT
FARMER & ENGINEER

FRIDAY 17 MARCH
FROM 8.00AM TO 2.00PM

At Lodgefield Farm

BY LAYING A HEDGE,
WE WILL ENCOURAGE NEW GROWTH
AND START A NEW LIFE CYCLE WHICH IS ESSENTIAL FOR OUR COUNTRYSIDE AND FARMING INDUSTRY TO THRIVE.

- FREE -

TO ALL THOSE INTERESTED!

Watch and learn, or participate in how to lay a hedgerow – in order to regenerate and conserve our precious landscape for future generations to come.

AT THE EVENT WE WILL:

- ➔ Demonstrate the practical management of hedgerows
- ➔ Show you the skills and tools needed to lay a hedge successfully
- ➔ Help you understand the value of this traditional craft for practical stock containment, wildlife and the landscape

TEA, COFFEE
& HOT SOUP
PROVIDED

At Lodgefield Farm, we have studied maps dating back to the 1800's and plan to return hedgerows to these approximate positions, creating wildlife corridors made up from mixed hedging and fruit trees. These are the first steps to enhancing our local biodiversity and maximising the productivity of our land – restoring the balance between nature and people long-term.
